Bob Johnson is the pastor of the Blue Ridge Chapel Church of the Brethren. Chaplain Bob is a Master Chaplain with the International Conference of Police Chaplains (ICPC), where he currently serves as a disaster response team member. He also serves as the Mid-East Regional Director for the organization, providing administrative leadership for chaplains in seven states and the Washington D.C. area.

Chaplain Bob served two tours of duty at the World Trade Center disaster site in New York. He also served as the point man for the ICPC in Gulfport, Mississippi, in the aftermath of Hurricane Katrina, serving the police departments of Gulfport, Long Beach, and Pass Christian.

His inspirational book, I Saw God in the Midst of Tragedy, recounts his volunteer experiences following 9/11 in New York City. He'll be discussing his experiences at Ground Zero and Hurricane Katrina tonight. Visit <http://chaplainbobwtcministry.com>.
